Annwyl Rieni a gofalwyr,

Monday 5th January

Unfortunately, the heating is not working in the Years 5-13 building. As such we will not be able to open the school for pupils in Years 5-13. School will be closed today for these pupils.

The heating is working as normal in the Years N-4 building and so school will be open today for these pupils.

In the Specialist Resource Base, the school will be open for Starfish and Shrimp classes, and closed for the other classes.

Please accept our upmost apologies for the inconvenience. We have contractors on site working on this today, and indications are that this should be fixed ready for tomorrow. I will write to you later with an update.

Thank you for your support.

Yn gywir,

Mr J. Watson
Headteacher
King Henry VIII 3-19 School
